GIVE YOURSELF SOME CREDIT!

Join us in the Library community room on Thursday, March 22 at 7:00 p.m. to hear guest speaker and local author, John Panzella, discuss his book, Give Yourself Some Credit. Too many people make mistakes with their credit, especially in their younger years, that ultimately cost a lot of unnecessary money, stress, and missed opportunities in life. Panzella will focus on the tools and skill-sets associated with building credit from the start and maintaining a positive, healthy credit profile throughout life. Please RSVP on our website, walk-ins welcome.

Hudson Valley Ruins

On Thursday, April 19 at 7:00 p.m., visiting authors, Rob Yasinac and Thomas Rinaldi, will discuss their book, Hudson Valley Ruins, which will cover some of the region's forgotten cultural treasures. In addition to great river estates, sites more meaningful to everyday life, such as churches, hotels, commercial and civic buildings, mills and train stations will be featured. Works by some of the most important names in American architectural history, such as Alexander Jackson Davis and Calvert Vaux will also be discussed. Light refreshments will be served. Please RSVP on our website, walk-ins welcome.

LOOKING FOR JOB LAB?

We have reformatted Job Lab this year to better accommodate your time! One-on-one appointments can be made by calling Lindsay at the Library, at 845-236-7272 ext. 220, to go over any job-search related questions you may have!

Don't forget our 24hr book drop to the right of the main entrance!

Remember the Ladies: 18th Century Women in Song

Stop by the Library on Sunday, March 11 at 2:00 p.m. to hear Linda Russell, an accomplished singer historian, lead you on a musical journey that ties into Women's History Month. Hear songs of 18th century women at work, in love, as patriots and in mourning. Interspersed with the songs are excerpts from women's diaries and letters of the day along with stories of Deborah Samson, who fought as a soldier in Washington's army, and, of course, Martha Washington and Abigail Adams.

As a balladeer for the National Park Service at Federal Hall National Memorial in New York City for 16 years, Linda interpreted history through music and has been featured in A Prairie Home Companion, Carnegie Hall, Avery Fisher Hall, Symphony Space and the National Archives. Light refreshments will be served. Please RSVP on our website, walk-ins welcome.

INVESTMENTS, DEBTS & BUDGETING

Join us during Money Smart Week on Thursday, April 26 at 7:00 p.m. to hear tips about investments, debts, and budgeting with AXA Advisors financial educator, Steven Knapp. Mr. Knapp will also answer any financial questions. Please RSVP on our website, walk-ins welcome.
