Join us at the Library to learn more about the greatest franchise in American sports history, as award-winning sportswriter, Martin Gitlin, discusses his book, The Ultimate New York Yankees Time Machine Book. This program highlights exciting and nostalgic videos of the finest teams, players, moments and events in the New York Yankees history, even going back to the days of the Highlanders - from the pre-Ruthian era to today. The program also features Yankees trivia questions for patrons to ponder and covers the best of the best, including Ruth, Gehrig, DiMaggio, Mantle, Ford, Jeter, Rivera, and Judge while spotlighting the top teams of the long Yankees dynasty from the 1920s to the 1960s and beyond.
RSVP at marlborolibrary.org. Walk-ins welcome.

Local Author Talk: Anthony Musso MADAMS, MOBSTERS, & MURDERS IN THE HUDSON VALLEY Thursday, September 28, 7:00 p.m.

Join us at the Library as we welcome back Anthony Musso, as he discusses his new book, Madams, Mobsters, and Murders in the Hudson Valley. Amidst the peaceful and quiet Hudson Valley, a dark element existed in its past. Through the years, that darkness took the form of bootleg distilleries, speakeasies, mobsters, and "ladies of the night" operating in plain sight - occupations more often found in large cities rather than rural settings. Yet they chose instead to set up shop in the Hudson Valley, creating large-scale, illegal, and extremely ingenious covert activities under the nose of law enforcement. This book is a true account of those activities. RSVP at marlborolibrary.org. Walk-ins welcome.

Friends of the MFL: Dark Side of Marlboro Walking Tour Sunday, October 22, 4:00 & 6:30 p.m. Sunday, October 29, 6:30 p.m.
